♥♥♥♥ LOVE FOR MY GIRLS

Aggie Royals

Who We Are

Aggie Royals is a women's organization that strives to unify women on the Texas A&M campus by displaying our three pillars of service, commitment, and integrity. We aim to uplift and inspire every member through a number of service and leadership opportunities in support of our philanthropy, Soldiers' Angels.

Aggie Royals

What We Do

Our goal is to give each member the confidence, skill set, and interpersonal network connections to excel in their future career endeavors. We are a support system, network, and a sisterly bond like no other. With Royals, you'll meet your future bridesmaids, personal cheerleaders, and women who inspire you each day.

Sister HOOD

This January is already off to an amazing start!

We have all gotten to start off right where we stopped and continue to make memories together.

We had a vision board making night to get started on the new year with plans and goals! We then had a social event, a ski apri date party, where we had the most fun! Lastly this month we got together and made charm necklaces together, where we all got to accessorize ourselves!

Service

Starting our service events off the right way this semester. Starting with, Back to School Bash! We had our back to school bash for two days where we set up in the MSC, and let students passing by write their semester goals, and go home with some fun stickers. On day 2 we did vision board making to create goals for all of our Aggie family! We also were so excited to mix with Aggie Suits Men's Organization, where we decorated lunch bags for Meals on Wheels!

Philan THROPY

We had our first care package making event of the year for our new soldiers that we are sponsoring; Jesse and Matty B!! On another note we have our most anticipated event of the year, coming up, only 3 weeks away. Get ready for...
